

Drawing the Everyday; Sketchbooks - Virtual

Teaching Artist: Dani Godreau

Bring all materials on first day unless otherwise noted

- Graphite pencil and eraser
- Ballpoint pen
- Black sharpie
- Small container of gesso- 8 oz
- Glue stick
- White glue- 5 oz
- Choice of Paint
 - Watercolor, gouache, or acrylic. Oil will NOT work
 - If you don't already have paint at home, wait to speak to instructor on the first day before buying.
- Small brushes to use with chosen paint and gesso
- White extra fine posca marker
- Mixed Media Sketchbook (See below for specific requirements)

The most important supply in this sketchbook class is... well... the sketchbook. My recommendation is this Canson Mix Media Art Book, Heavyweight French Paper, Double Sided Fine and Medium Texture, Side Wire Bound, 138 Pound, 9 x 12 Inch, 40 Sheets. You can find it at Blick for \$22.87.

If you choose a different sketchbook, make sure it follows these guidelines:

- Spiral wire bound- So the pages can lay flat while working
- At the very least 95lb paper
 - This is an industry term referring to the thickness of the paper. The sketchbook above has 138lb paper meaning each sheet is about 7 times thicker than a standard piece of copy paper.
- At least 20 pages. I recommend more pages if you're a fast worker. The sketchbook above has 40 pages.
- Sized between 7x11" and 9x12"

Optional:

This class is all about getting excited to create in our sketchbooks with items we have on hand. Now's your chance to pull out any supplies you have sitting around your home:

- Kid's markers, crayons, colored pencils
- Highlighters, pastels, alcohol inks, gel medium
- Stickers, post-it notes, washi tape, tissue paper
- Newspaper, magazines, collage paper, scrapbook paper
- Past 2-D artwork that can be recycled into something new
